President Reveals Inside Discussion.

House Conference is Represented in the Nation's Annals.

Obligation to Join in Arms Wars Under League is Purely Moral.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—The conference at the White House today, unprecedented in American history, President Wilson presided over the peace treaty between the United States and Mexico.

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee, answered questions by Senators and gave a transcript of the proceedings to the public.

Some of the inside details of the conference and other happenings were handed out to the world to the time-honored procedure of secrecy.

President Wilson's "con-ference" and Senatorial "con-ference" are the two names for the same thing.

CARRANZA IS IGNORED.

Mexico Expedition by Baker Order.

Troops Across Rio Grande not Regarded at Washington as Invasion.

War Secretary Refuses to Comment on Aims Below the Border.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING. [EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.] WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—The American punitive expedition sent into Mexico on a "hot trail" for bandits who captured and held for ransom the American aviators, Davis and Peterson, was ordered by Secretary Baker, and is not regarded by the American government as an invasion of Mexico.

Following notice that the American aviators had been released, Secretary Baker today issued a statement disclosing that he had ordered the American cavalry into Mexico to pursue the bandits.

It was learned from the State Department that the American government acted without consulting with Carranza, and up to a late hour the Mexico City government had not been officially informed that American troops had crossed the border early today.

"When the report came of the capture of these two officers and their being held for ransom," said Secretary Baker, "the hour of their action was fixed on the spot, and in default of the ransom being paid."

"There was, of course, no opportunity to make a military rescue within such time, and I therefore directed that the ransom money be paid, and that a force be organized to take up the hot trail of the bandits and pursue them with the hope of being able to capture as many as possible."

"I understand from the newspapers that the captured officers have been returned to this country, and no doubt the attempt to follow the hot trail has been arranged in accordance with the directions given by me."

CONFIRM BORDER CROSSING. Secretary Baker made public no details regarding this punitive expedition, but War Department officials confirmed dispatches from the border stating that troops from the Eighth Cavalry formed the expedition. How many are in the expedition was not disclosed.

State Department officials said negotiations with Carranza, military government of Mexico, for the ransom money had not been taken up and nothing would be done in all probability until full details were officially received.

The expedition into Mexico may be regarded by Carranza as an invasion of Mexican rights, just as the recent expedition into Juarez was regarded, but American officials are not at all apprehensive, confident Carranza is not in a position to make effective protest.

Early in the day the State Department received from Mexico City in answer to its demand for quick action on the part of the Mexican government, but effect release of the American aviators, that it would take every possible step to accede to the demand.

It also was reported that Gen. Diezges, Carranza commander at Chihuahua, had ordered cavalry to search for the release of the American aviators, and their captors.

Another and rather surprising report to the State Department stated that Carranza had offered a reward of 50,000 pesos for the capture of Villa and that several officers allied with Villa had been shot for treason.

CARRANZA POWERLESS. The powerlessness of the Carranza government to keep order in Mexico has been further demonstrated by (Continued on Fifteenth Page.)

CHIEF OF INVADERS BORDER VETERAN.

LOUISVILLE (Ky.) Aug. 19.—Capt. Leonard F. Matlack, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Matlack, Louisville, gained fame in December, 1915, when, with twenty men, he followed a band of 200 bandits into Mexico, and after a battle in which thirty-five of the bandits were killed recovered a herd of cattle stolen from the American side of the border.

Matlack, a veteran of the Spanish-American War, enlisted in the Regular Army in 1902 and saw service in the Philippines. He has been mentioned three times on the official dispatches for extraordinary service.

GOING TO JOY IN STRATHMORE HOME.

RELEASE OF LIEUT. DAVIS EASES TENSION OF PARENTS: HOPE FOR REVENGE.

PORTERVILLE, Aug. 19.—Gloom was turned to joy today at the country home of Dr. Warren B. Davis, where he and Mrs. Davis had anxiously been awaiting word of the fate of their son, Lieut. Paul H. Davis, when, telegrams arrived stating that he had been released safe and sound.

The first telegram came from Col. J. H. Renteria, commanding at Marfa, saying: "Davis was safe, and a short time later a message came from E. E. Barbour, representing this district in Congress, saying he had received word from the War Department confirming these reports."

Dr. Davis was much interested in a story received at his home through a news agency, in the course of the afternoon which told of the formation of a cavalry troop for a dash across the border after the bandits, and he appeared particularly pleased when he heard in these messages that his son was to be one of the expedition. "You can be sure Paul will be in it," he said cheerfully, "if there is any fighting going on. Only recently we had a letter from him saying he had been assigned to an 'old man's job' and regretting that he had been denied the adventure of active service with the A.E.F. in France."

Dr. Davis said this evening that he had been assigned to the instruction division, and despite his efforts to be sent to France he was retained in the United States as an instructor throughout the war period.

Lieut. Davis lived until ten years ago in Milwaukee, where his father was a practicing physician. In 1909 he came here with his parents, who purchased a fine orange grove property in the Strathmore district, north of this city. July 4 of this year Lieut. Davis was assigned to the border patrol work, largely because of his efficiency in radio work.

Dr. Davis said this evening that he could not too highly praise the tireless work which was done in behalf of his son by H. E. Barbour, Republican Congressman from this district. Dr. Davis said messages he received from Washington indicated that he was largely through the assistance of Congressman Barbour that Gen. Peyton C. March, Chief of Staff of the United States Army, approved of the army appropriation of the sum needed for the ransom of his son, "Senator Johnson answered at his leisure," said the doctor, "and when his reply came it was a curt, stilted formality, saying the matter would have his attention."

In his home community of Strathmore, Dr. Davis is personally very popular, and his home today was the scene of a general rejoicing, as neighbors called to offer their congratulations, where yesterday practically every man of that district had come to give every financial assistance in his power, if needed, to secure the release of the captured flyer.

From descriptions given by the aviators the bandit leader was Jesus Renteria, well known in the Big Bend-Gilgosa district, and not Chico Cano, although Renteria may have been operating under Cano's orders as Cano is known to be in the district opposite Candalaria. According to reports, Renteria, who lost a leg and an arm in a train wreck in Kansas, wears artificial limbs. The aviators said Renteria was the Mexican who negotiated with Capt. Matlack until midnight last night regarding details of the delivery of the ransom.

Fennell today told the first connected story of events preceding the crossing of the American aviators to the United States today. He outlined preliminary negotiations Monday between Capt. Matlack and the Mexican brother-in-law of Renteria, who acted as a go-between. Fennell said the bandits insisted the delivery of the aviators be made after dark so flames might be seen. The go-between crossed to San Antonio, Chihuahua, opposite Candalaria, and selected the spot where the aviators were to be delivered. It was at an old cottonwood tree a mile and a half south of San Antonio. The go-between then returned to the American side and said arrangements had been completed.

Returning to the old cottonwood, Capt. Matlack told Lieut. Davis to get on behind. Then the captain spurred his horse without delivering the balance of the money. "You can go plumb to hell, I'm going back," the captain shouted as he galloped across the river. Capt. Matlack dismounted, Fennell said he shook the money in their faces.

"Look at that; I'm going back tomorrow and get the rest of that money," the captain told them, Fennell said.

Fennell said the bandits carried high-powered rifles in their hands when Matlack escaped with Davis. The Mexicans were so astonished at the nerve of the officer they failed to shoot until the horse carrying the aviator and the cavalry commander disappeared across the river in the darkness.

Division at Camp Travis has given San Antonio a more military atmosphere than has prevailed for several months.

Gen. Dickman today instructed officers at Candalaria to pay the Mexican bandits the full $15,000 as stipulated in the agreement made with them by the United States government.

TEXAS GUARD ORDERED TO ARMS.

AUSTIN (Tex.) Aug. 19.—Gov. Hobby today instructed the Adjutant-General's department to have the Texas National Guard ready to respond to an emergency call for service on the border.

SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 19.—While no official of the Southern Department will make any comment upon the possible developments on the border, an atmosphere of preparedness is evident through the offices at headquarters.

Headquarters of the signal officer, where incoming telegrams and outgoing messages are handled, have become more than usually active. Although local newspaper offices have not been advised of a censorship on news relating to troops and airplane movements, it is noticeable that messages of this kind which hitherto were received almost daily, have ceased from border points. Recent arrival of the veteran Second ernment through the foreign department transfers the proposed form of ratification to the chancellors of the other nations that are concerned and if these interpretations are the same as we have agreed upon with them in your conversations, I do not see how we would need anything

FREED AVIATORS TELL OF PLIGHT.

Walk Three Days Before Falling Into Bandits' Hands.

Thought They Were Near Border When Plane Fell.

Forced to Write Ransom Letters, but not Injured.

[BY A. F. NIGHT WIRE.]

MARFA (Tex.) Aug. 19.—Completely confused in their directions, Lieut. H. G. Peterson and Lieut. Paul H. Davis, American army aviators released early today by payment of ransom to bandits who held them, believed they were on the American side of the border the entire time from the fall of their plane to their release. Capt. Matlack, who paid the ransom to the bandits, finally was able to convince them they were in Mexico, and had been following the Colorado River, thinking that stream was the Rio Grande. The aviators thought they were within five miles of Valenzuela, Tex.

Lieut. Peterson, first to cross the border from Mexico, today made the following statement:

"We fell about noon Sunday. We thought we were about two miles from Candalaria. We walked all Sunday afternoon and Sunday night until about 2:30 o'clock Monday morning, when we came to a Mexican ranch where we found a Mexican who spoke English. He told us there were three miles south. We asked him to take us there, but he told us the Mexicans would kill us if we went there. So we got him to take us to a road down which we walked about one hour.

THRILLING EXPERIENCES.

"We slept about one and one-half hours until 4 o'clock Monday morning, when we headed down what we thought was the Rio Grande. We started climbing over the hills, following the course of the river. Then we walked all day Monday, walking an hour and resting half an hour. Monday night we walked by moonlight until 10:30 p.m., when we went to sleep.

Juan Pass from Culchilla Parado to San Juan del Rio. Both rivers are lined with cottonwood trees. Lowland farms in Delta Conchos are the only green spots to be seen in the entire district, where palo verde, mesquite and cactus grow. Barren hills, rocky canyons and mountains are superimposed on mesas over which winding trails are traced in white.

PRECARIOUS TRAILS.

Along these trails the cavalrymen were making their way tonight. The columns often were forced to break into detachments and wind slowly up the sides of mountains or down box canyons, always alert for a bandit ambush. The soldiers and officers wore rain-soaked uniforms, caked with dampened dust. Their horses were tired from the long forced march.

The troops are on field rations from mule pack trains. No field kitchens were taken.

The communication line is being maintained to the border. Along it supply trains and couriers pass from the American side to the Mexican side to the columns in the field.

A field wireless, packed on mules and airplanes, is maintaining communication with headquarters here. The storm is interfering with field telephone communication.

The line to Presidio tonight was out of order and nothing was known of movements of Carranza troops from Ojinaga, opposite that point. Orders were issued at headquarters here to all commanders in the expedition to use every care to protect peaceable Mexicans.

The cavalry troops are spread out over a wide extent of Mexican country. Mexican Federal troops from Ojinaga are acting to prevent a clash between the American forces and Carranza's men.

It is not known how many are in the bandit band. Lieut. Davis and Lieut. Peterson saw six men. There were twenty other bandits at a ranch where the bandits stopped. The American aviators were told the band numbered sixty.

The bandits had American-made ammunition, and gave the aviators some at souvenirs.

The reported appearance of Chico Cano and other small bands of outlaws along the Mexican side of the river yesterday is believed to have been connected with Renteria's activities.

All suspicious Mexicans picked up by the troops on the Mexican side will be questioned closely to establish their identity.

Elmer Donnell of St. Louis, director of military relief for the American Red Cross, is here arranging for nurses, ambulances and surgical dressings for punitive expedition troops if needed.

Col. Langhorne sent a message to Gen. Antonio Pruneda, commander of the Ojinaga force, p.m., when we went to sleep and slept until 5 a.m. Tuesday. We thought Mexican tortillas at a little village to eat.

Tuesday we walked until 2:30 a.m. when we went to the river and swam for five hours down stream, taking ten minutes rest four different times. When we came to the rapids we decided we must land and walk.

"We landed, dried our clothes and started on the mountains. I had a little fever. We laid down on a mountain path and slept until 5 a.m. Wednesday. We saw smoke from a village and headed in that direction. We thought the village was just around the corner from Candalaria. We reached the village and got lots of food.

IN BANDITS' POWER.

"Then we hired a Mexican with three burros to take us to Candalaria. We were ready to start when an armed Mexican came up and addressed the Mexican we had employed. The armed man spoke in Spanish. He had no plan, and we began our journey on burros without Mexican guides. We soon were overtaken by six armed bandits and many townspeople. All but two of the bandits left us, but these two continued following us. After going about forty-five minutes the bandits stopped us and told the Mexican owner of the burros to return to his home. The Mexican objected, saying he was a townsman, and the bandits then headed us up the valley to a village where they made the Mexican drink.

"I gave the one-armed bandit leader two dollars and he arranged for food for us and liquor for himself. The bandits took us on to a ranch where we were paid for our release. The bandit leader spoke English very well. He had worked on the railroads in Kansas and had lost an arm and a leg in an accident, he said.

"We stayed over night in the mountains Saturday night, when the leader returned from sending the message. The bandits forged for food and we had plenty to eat. We camped all day Sunday. The leader left Sunday night and returned Monday morning. He said the money for our release would be paid.

"We left there at noon Monday and then camped until 9 o'clock Monday night, when we started to meet Capt. Matlack. We met him at approximately 1:15 a.m. today. After bringing me over the border he returned to Lieut. Davis.

"We were well treated. We had plenty of food. There were three bandits with us most of the time. We did not learn the name of the bandits but believe we could identify them.

"We thought all the time we were near Valentine.

TRY TO ESCAPE.

"We met Capt. Matlack at a ranch which is about twenty-five minutes walk from Candalaria. Upstairs we were never blindfolded or mistreated in any way, except once when we tried to escape. The bandits said they would kill us if we tried again.

"They also threatened to kill us if the ransom was unpaid."

Lieut. Davis' story differed from that of Lieut. Peterson only in a few minor details. Lieut. Davis added the fact that the plane fell near a bridge over the river. The plane afterwards was located near Palomir, Chihuahua.

Although Davis and Peterson were tired from their eight-day vigil, they ate an early breakfast and reported to Col. Langhorne here and left with the first column of troops.

Enough for 4 1/2 Million

If they live no better than the average, the million Delinquent families spend $833,829 for food every day in the year.

But as Delinquent families are more prosperous than the average, instead of spending 304 million yearly, they probably spend more than twice that for food. Here, indeed, is a market for the manufacturer of foodstuffs.

EXPLAINS ZABEL TO PAY

District Attorney
Assessment.

Mr. Zabel would be a non-partisan candidate for District Attorney at the next county election was the rumor afflout in the City Hall. Asked whether there was any ground for the report, Mr. Zabel declined to make a positive statement.

POLLED MOST VOTES.
From the beginning of his political career Mr. Zabel has polled more votes than any other candidate of his party in the city or county. His refusal to yield to party discipline and his efficient administration of the affairs of his office have made him popular outside of the party ranks. Mr. Zabel stated Tuesday that he had not written his letter resigning from the Socialist party, but that he would write it during the day.

Mr. Zabel charges that a number of well-known Socialist officials have not made their payments of the 20 per cent. assessment, among those mentioned being Martin Plahn, deputy County Clerk, and former Clerk Carl Dietz, present Alderman and former City Controller; Emil Seidel, former Mayor; D. W. Hoan, Mayor of Milwaukee; Assemblyman Louis A. Arnold, formerly tax commissioner; William Eberle, formerly deputy health commissioner; Dr. F. A. Kraft, former health commissioner; Harry Briggs, former public works commissioner, and Joseph Medroff, former City Engineer.

That Victor L. Berger, now fighting off the party, been loud in denouncing me because I refuse to cram this office from top to bottom with Socialist lawyers. In making my appointments I have been guided by the requirements of public efficiency.

AS TO CIVIL SERVICE.
With respect to the civil service situation in the party, Mr. Zabel said: "Party leaders have always claimed they stood for civil service as a means of eliminating city and county employees from political control. Now that they have taken office they have undertaken to violate it and to break it down. The Sheriff has refused to recognize it and he has objected to the appointment of men who have returned from overseas service. He has demoted one man contrary to civil service and I have commenced a mandamus to compel him to obey this civil service law."

NOTHING CRIMINAL IN DISPLAYING BARE LEGS

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—Police Judge Fitzpatrick, flanked by Prosecuting Attorney Benjamin Block, his stenographer, Danny Long, and Attorney Harry Michael, representing the fair maids of a theatrical company now at a local theater, viewed with dismay a repetition of the exhibition that led to the arrest of the girls at the stage door of the theater on Saturday last by Policeman Al Williams. That is what the court said.

If this be crime, it is said

SEEKS TO GET EXCESS PROFITS OF SUGAR MEN

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.
CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—The sugar profiteers of Chicago must disgorge their plunder while they walk the plank, Attorney Clyne will not be satisfied with sending them to jail. They must first remit. A test suit was filed in the District Court today by Mr. Clyne in which he demands that Charles Pope, head of a sugar refinery at Riverdale, be compelled to pay to Herbert Hoover, as head of the food administration $15,000 of alleged excess profits in violation of the Food Control Act. The civil prosecution may set a precedent for district attorney throughout the United States and will be followed in Chicago by a number of similar actions. As it is a test suit the United States attorney will ask that it be pushed ahead in the September calendar for early disposition.

HOOVER'S VISIT REJOICES POLES.

Arrival of Food Relief Expert Made Gala Day.

Celebration Also Commemorates Victory of Legions.

Premier Paderewski Greets American Delegation.

WARSAW, Aug. 12.—(Delayed.) Herbert C. Hoover's arrival and commemoration of the entry of the Polish legion into the kingdom of Poland made this a gala day.

Mr. Hoover arrived last night in a special train, accompanied by Col. James A. Logan, Col. Goodrich and Lieutenant-Commander G. B. Saker, and Robert Taft. The party was met at the station by Premier Paderewski and his ministers and a military escort and crowded about heartily for the man who fed Poland.

Mr. Hoover is here to stir up the food relief and to inquire into the coal transportation needs of Poland. A large number of the personnel already have left and the remainder will leave this week except Maj. Thomas Reade Ryan, who will stay for the inter-allied railways commission, and Lieut. N. Walker and Lieut. Maurice Pate, who will conduct a permanent children's relief. The American Red Cross expects to remain all winter to meet the crying want of the eastern regions.

DAY OF VICTORY.
This was a day such as Warsaw seldom witnessed. Five years ago on August 8, Gen. Pilsudski's volunteers marched from Galicia into Russian Poland, which is Pilsudski's home land, and met the Russian troops on the Baltic. Since then the fortunes of the empire have ebbed and flowed over Poland, whose hopes for freedom advanced and recoiled. For about nine months German troops stood in the Place Nashi in front of the much despised Russian cathedral.

Today Polish cavalry guarded the emboucheure to that spot; Polish infantry formed a hollow square around the big church. A Polish crowd stood on the steps and thronged every balcony to hail the delivery.

The ceremony of a free nation took place amid the relics of former rulers.

As thousands of rifles snapped to salute Gen. Pilsudski appeared dressed simply as any private, walking beside the prancing mounts of the staff. The coming of M. and Mme. Paderewski was the signal for a thanksgiving mass there in the presence of the last remnants of those first volunteers.

ARMY IS WELCOMED.
At the military review that followed Mr. Hoover and other representatives of the Allies stood beside Gen. Pilsudski all afternoon. There were sports for the troops at Argryll, Gen. Haller's Yankee-Poles took a leading part. The American Red Cross gave cigarettes and chocolate. It was represented by E. W. Loss Downes and Mrs. Joseph Kudlicka, who were active in serving the menu. All theaters threw open their doors to the army.

Tomorrow the Lithuanians of Warsaw will celebrate the deliverance of Minsk from the Bolsheviks. Thursday is Mr. Hoover's day, when Warsaw will render thanks for the nine months of American food.

Mr. Hoover and his party leave for Paris Thursday evening.

FRENCH WORRY AT NO REPORT FROM FLYERS.

AIRPLANE GOLIATH NOT HEARD FROM SINCE LEAVING MOGADOR SATURDAY.

PARIS, Aug. 19.—Great anxiety is felt here over the failure of the French airplane Goliath to report since leaving Mogador early on Saturday, as the machine was equipped with a strong wireless apparatus. The airplane carried eight passengers.

CASABLANCA, Morocco, Aug. 18.—No news of the great French airship Goliath, which left Mogador for Dakar on Saturday morning, has been received here, and there is much anxiety over the possible fate of the machine. In view of the solitude of the regions over which the airplane flew, however, it is premature to conclude that the machine has been wrecked.

JAP MAY FLY PACIFIC.
BY A. F. MIGHT WIRE.
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—A trans-Pacific flight is to be attempted soon by D. Isobe, a Japanese aviator, according to a cable received from Japan by the Japanese-American News of San Francisco. The cable did not outline the course of the proposed flight, but editors of the newspaper said they believed it would be via Honolulu. Isobe, they said, had flying experience in France during the war.

STRIKE ULTIMATUM BY OMAHA NEWS WRITERS.

BY A. F. MIGHT WIRE.
OMAHA, Aug. 19.—Fourteen newspaper men—comprising the staffs of the morning and evening Bee, will walk out at 5 p.m. today unless their demands for increased wages are met. The ultimatum, presented this morning, expires at that time. The men are forming a newspaper men's union. Omaha typographical workers say they will refuse to handle any but union copy upon completion of the organization.

TEXAS LEADS NATION IN GUARD ENLISTING.

BY A. F. MIGHT WIRE.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—Although more than a month has passed since authority was given States to encourage their National Guards, only 35,013 enlistments have been reported to the militia bureau. Of this total at least one-third are in the Texas Guard. There are twenty-seven States without any organizations.

STRIKERS FAIL TO STOP CARS.

Pasadena Authorities Refuse Unionists' Request.

Crown City Girl to Teach Alaskan School.

Double Funeral for Victims of Auto Accident.

PARADISE, Aug. 19.—Striking Pacific Electric trainmen in Pasadena attempted to persuade the City Commissioners to pass a special ordinance today compelling new train crews of the Pacific Electric to pass a Commission examination to determine their qualifications to run cars, the strikers claiming that the men now running the cars are incompetent. The Commission refused to interfere, taking no action on the request. It was announced by local Pacific Electric officials that all trainmen running the cars are both experienced and competent and none others are being used. Additional cars were put in service on the Oak Knoll today. No night cars are being run on the interurban lines as yet and the company has not attempted to resume service on the Pasadena local lines.

TAKE MANY ORDERS. Pasadena mail carriers took many orders for groceries today which was the first day of the government order-taking in Pasadena. The orders came in such numbers that the post-office force had not had time to compute the total tonight. The providers the Pasadena are ordering through the postoffice service will come from Fort Mason, San Francisco.

PAY RAISE DELAYED. Pasadena firemen and policemen received another disappointment today when the City Commission again postponed action on the ordinance voting them an increase in pay for the coming year. The delay was decided upon to permit the Commissioners to give further study to the question of city finances for the coming year.

TEACHERS IN ALASKA. Many daughters of Pasadena families teach school in other cities during the school year but none of them have vacations out as short as Miss Jessie Rau, 291 North El Molino avenue. In order to be on the job the first day of school, Miss Rau left for her school today. It is in Juneau, Alaska. She is to teach in the high school there. Miss Rau is on a year's leave of absence from the Long Beach school to go to the far north. Mrs. B. B. Roe has been elected president of the Pasadena Federation of Parent-Teacher Associations to fill the unexpired term of Mrs. L. D. Wishard, who is leaving to spend the winter at Evanston, Ill. Mrs. Roe has been very active in the work of the Parent-Teacher societies of the schools.

DOUBLE FUNERAL. A double funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock for Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Rudloff with John Wessener, died from injuries received when their auto was struck by a train at the North El Molino avenue grade crossing. Mrs. Rudloff died a few minutes after the accident which occurred August 8, but Mr. Rudloff lingered until last week. Services will be held at Reynolds and Van Noy chapel and burial at Mountain View Cemetery.

Redlands Families Take Advantage of Government Offer.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE. REDLANDS, Aug. 19.—The Redlands postoffice became a grocery store today when E. N. Sturtevant, assistant postmaster, began taking the orders for the supply of government-owned food stocks being offered to the people here. There was an excellent response to the offer to sell bacon, ham, beans, canned vegetables, coffee and other food stocks at a low cost. Where the commodities come packed in large quantities there are clubs of families being organized to take the food. The government has allotted a certain amount of food to the local office and orders will be taken until the allotment is exhausted.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE. VENTURA, Aug. 19.—A. Tuttle Harrison, for twelve years an exporter and importer at Costa Rica, and nephew of Thomas Gould, Sr., of Ventura, has been arrested and deported from the Central American State. He had incurred the ill will of the Tinoco regime, although a friend of the American consul. The matter has been taken up with the State Department at Washington. Harrison asserts that he was arrested on the street at night, put aboard a special train, taken to a waiting steamer and thence conveyed to the coast of Panama. From there he took boat to New Orleans. He says he was given no opportunity to explain or defend himself according to law, to communicate with his wife or make business arrangements. His wife is still in Porto Rico, where he had his headquarters for many years.

COST PLUS POSTAGE. MONROVIA, Aug. 19.—Postmaster Frank Zimmerman expects to do a thriving business in government foodstuffs during the three days that the surplus commodities are on sale by Uncle Sam. All regulations, order forms and blanks were received today, together with a list of the supplies that may be had from the zone supply office at Fort Mason, San Francisco. A large number of Monrovia housewives are planning to take advantage of the "cost-plus" prices quoted by the government.

EGG PRICES DOWN.

Opinions of Experts on Result of Government Seizure.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE. TULARE, Aug. 19.—Widely divergent opinions are expressed by local factors in the poultry products market as to the result of the government's seizure of eggs. J. A. Marr, manager here for a San Francisco concern, jobbers in poultry products, said:

"We have stopped putting our eggs in storage until we can find out what the government intends to do. As a result we are paying 18 cents for eggs now as against 18 odd cents a week ago. We are handling no dressed poultry and a sharp drop in the price of live hens can be expected. The market is coming down, but it is bound to work a hardship this winter, when there are no reserve stocks to draw from."

That the biter is being bit, is the contrary contention of the poultry association heads. "Prices are down," said J. N. Foss, manager of the Tulare Co-Operative Poultry Association, "and we expected them to go down. I have contended right along the price was getting for eggs were not justified by the market conditions. Commission firms have been buying right and left to send stuff into storage, and the price has risen out of reason. They had to pay the high prices to get the products. Now they are facing a squeeze and naturally they are not at all pleased. Present prices are such that the poultry man should make a good profit, and they are as high as all conditions warrant."

CASE HINGES ON MARRIAGE LAWS.

MEXICAN CLAIMS CHURCH WEDDING NOT A LEGAL CEREMONY.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE. POMONA, Aug. 19.—That the laws of Mexico do not recognize a marriage performed by a Catholic priest in that country, and that therefore the marriage of Mrs. George Heffner and her husband, who is now in the Mexican Consulate in Los Angeles, is not a legal one, is the opinion expressed today by Justice U. E. White following a conversation with Attorney Orilla, who is connected with the office of the Mexican Consul in Los Angeles. Justice White is attorney for Martine and his wife, and, as the case in its present stage hinges on the question of whether or not the church marriage in Mexico was a legal one, he has been investigating the matter.

George Heffner had caused the arrest of Martine on a charge of marrying a woman he knew to be already married, and caused him to be brought from San Francisco to San Bernardino. Later a charge of bigamy was preferred against the wife and she was also brought from San Francisco. A few days ago they appeared at a preliminary hearing and were held to answer to the Superior Court. Martine furnished bail and is now at liberty.

The case presents one of the strangest tangles which have come before the San Bernardino courts for some time. The Heffners have seven children, three of whom are now in the navy.

Martine and Mrs. Heffner were married in San Bernardino April 17, 1917, by Justice Hanna of Colton, and soon after the man went to San Francisco. A short time later Heffner appeared and caused a warrant to be issued for the couple, charging that his wife had eloped.

In the preliminary hearing, Martine defended his actions by stating that he and his wife were married by a Catholic priest at Ensenada, Mex., in 1915. He also claimed that the laws of Mexico do not recognize a marriage performed under the auspices of that denomination, and that therefore Heffner was never legally wedded to Miss Garcia, and that he, Martine, had committed no crime when he married her. Both the court and Deputy District Attorney M. O. Hart admitted that they were somewhat in doubt as to the marriage status of Mexico, and that if what Martine claimed is true he probably could not be held. However, it was decided to hold him to the Superior Court on the charge of marrying a woman who was already married.

Heffner, who appeared as the complaining witness against Martine, stated that he and his wife came to California a few months after they were married, and that on account of a protest of some of his relatives he had secured a marriage license at Los Angeles. His wife, however, refused to go through a second ceremony as a matter of pride, stating that she had already complied with the regulations of her church, which were sufficient for her.

WILL REOPEN MINE OF BONANZA DAYS.

PORTERVILLE MEN ORGANIZE COMPANY TO START DEVELOPMENT.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE. PORTERVILLE, Aug. 19.—Indicating a revival of mining at Talbot River, the once famous "Tall Hot" of bonanza days in California, Grass Valley gold miners have bought the claims of the Blue Mountain Mining Company, situated in the White River foothills. The company has been reorganized, capitalized at $400,000 and the new owners have announced that a large force of men will be put to work on the property at once.

The deal was closed by Rodney McCormick, president of the Golden Center of Grass Valley Mining Company, and J. W. Howard, the secretary of that corporation. The latter is now engaged in orange growing in this district, and who brought the attention of the Grass Valley men to the property, has been made superintendent.

Purchase of the property was completed after the third visit to the mine by Messrs. McCormick and Howard, who were accompanied by Oscar L. Coffin, a mining engineer, who confirmed previous reports.

According to the Coffin there is a mile of outcrop on the claims and the value of the ore, which is of free milling quality, is equal to that of Grass Valley. He added that the ore vein is twice as wide as that in the Grass Valley holdings of the same name, and is perfectly straight and true. None of the levels of the Blue Mountain show any water, he said, and other conditions are good.

It has been announced by the new owners that the necessary capital for operations on a large scale has already been secured. They are now up and about the new concern, which is to be a close corporation.

TWO MILLION DOLLARS FOR A GREAT SHOWHOUSE HERE

Magnificent New Grauman Theater and Greater First Methodist Church
Assured by Huge Purchase.

America's largest and most luxurious show-house, to cost more than $2,000,000, will be immediately constructed at the present site of the First Methodist Church, Sixth and Hill streets, on ground for which Sid Grauman, the motion-picture exhibitor, and his father, D. J. Grauman, have just paid $1,000,000 cash, in the largest cash realty transaction consummated in downtown Los Angeles within the last eleven years. This announcement was made yesterday by Mr. Grauman, who revealed details of plans for a theater that will stand alone in point of size, magnificent appointments and modern conveniences and luxuries.

The cash purchase has not been equalled in this city since the transfer of the Huntington property at Eleventh and Main streets, more than a decade past. The theater site includes the property now occupied by the First Methodist Church, with 164 feet frontage on Sixth street and 120 feet on Hill; the J. J. Haggerty lot, with sixty feet of frontage on Hill street, and the lot owned by the Los Angeles Investment Company, with sixty feet of frontage on Hill street, and both lots with a depth of 154 feet. The deal was handled for both buyer and seller by George Ridenbaugh and D. Parker Bryon, of the Wright-Callender-Andrews Co.

ELABORATE PLANS.
The great showhouse will be known as Grauman's Metropolitan Theater. The building and equipment alone, it is announced, will cost $1,500,000; the structure will be of reinforced concrete and fireproof throughout, will have the appointments of the best modern clubs and hotels, and will contain many features never before attempted in the world. The seating capacity, according to present plans, will be 4200.

Raising of the buildings now on the site will start within thirty days, and construction of the theater in six days. Three shifts of men will be employed for the wrecking and building. The architect to draw the final plans will be selected within a few days. It is believed the Metropolitan will be finished within eight months.

FOR GREAT CHURCH.
The consummation of the sale of the First Methodist Church site will mean the greatest realty transaction in Los Angeles, according to its officials. This new church probably will be erected on the present site of the old Abbotford Inn, on the southwest corner of Eighth and Hope streets. The property there was purchased by the trustees of the First Methodist Church five years ago and has been held for the site of a new and greater church edifice when their present property should be sold.

Present plans of the auditorium call for a main floor and two galleries. The first one of these galleries will be on the second floor, and the second on the third floor. The auditorium will be a fan-shaped like Roman chariot; each will be equipped with electric pulpits, and the occupants may call for any service supplied in the better hotels or clubs.

MONSTER STAGE.
The stage will be at the north end of the building, which will extend from Hill street to a paved alley. In addition to the entrance at Sixth and Hill streets, there will be another entrance at the alley and Sixth street and one for automobiles on the alley. Here the patrons in the main drive within a step or two of the box office.

The stage will be forty-five feet deep. The proscenium arch will be seventy-four feet wide and ninety feet high. This stage will accommodate any scenic effect known to stagecraft.

By a specially-arranged device, the lighting of the interior of the theater will be controlled by the organist and their color will synchroize with the music.

Around the inside of the theater a promenade is to be built. No pillars will be used to support the balcony and there will be nothing around the seats to mar the view of the stage, but behind the seats and on the sides of the auditorium massive pillars will be built, with green velvet curtains between. Behind these pillars will be the promenade, and along the walls several hundred niches will hold life-size marble statues of stars of the motion-picture world and great musicians and other artists of the past and present.

SPLENDID ORGAN.
In keeping with the other appointments of the theater will be a $100,000 organ for which Mr. Grauman has given a contract to the Wuritzer company. This will be the largest finest and most modern organ that firm has ever built. Echo organs will be placed all around the theater and the effect of thousands of voices singing when the organ is played. The instrument will produce every shade, color and variation of musical tone known.

A sixty-piece symphony orchestra will play at all performances and each Sunday morning the thirty-piece symphony orchestra at Grauman's million-dollar theater will combine with the Metropolitan Orchestra for a concert at the latter theater.

Lounging rooms, smoking rooms and all modern conveniences to be found at leading metropolitan clubs and hotels will be at the theater. "We want to get away from the ordinary theater idea," Mr. Grauman said.

SITES CONSIDERED.
Messrs. Ridenbaugh and Bryon have been working on the Grauman deal for many months. Many valuable pieces of property were considered by the purchasers, including the Mercantile Place property at Sixth street and Broadway, owned by the Board of Education.

With the erection of the proposed $2,000,000 theater, it is predicted that Hill-street property fronting on Pershing Square will become greatly enhanced in value. Already several fine buildings have frontage on Pershing Square, including the Mutual Life Insurance Building, Temple Auditorium and the California Club, and Mr. Grauman believes that his theater building will be the advance

GET OPTION ON PALOS VERDES.

Hellman Syndicate Prepares to Buy Great Ranch.

Three Million, Two Hundred Thousand Price Asked.

New Owners to Seek Oil and Subdivide the Rest.

Negotiations which have been progressing for nearly two months were completed yesterday whereby a syndicate of Los Angeles capitalists headed by Irving H. Hellman secured an option to purchase the 16,000-acre Palos Verdes ranch in the harbor district owned by Frank A. Vanderlip, former president of the National City Bank of New York. The option was signed late yesterday afternoon, Benjamin Page, a Los Angeles attorney, representing the Hellman interests, and Donald Barker acting for Jay Lawyer, personal representative of Mr. Vanderlip, were not announced. It is understood that the price fixed by Mr. Vanderlip approximates $3,200,000 and that an initial payment of $100,000 was required.

This immense Palos Verde property, which was purchased from the Bixby family in 1913 by a syndicate of New York millionaires, including Mr. Vanderlip, Henry P. Davison and representatives of the estate of the late James M. Stillwell, has long been regarded as one of the most picturesque estates in the whole of Southern California. It contains about four miles of coast line, including some 4000 acres especially desirable for villa sites overlooking the Pacific Ocean and 12,000 acres of rolling land most suitable for cultivation.

OIL AND SUBDIVISION.
While no statement was forthcoming from any of the principals last evening, it is understood that the purchase is completed, the new owners will do extensive oil development work on the 12,000 acre portion of the property and will eventually subdivide the remainder into villa sites along the lines originally contemplated by Mr. Vanderlip and his associates.

The negotiations which resulted in the granting of the option signed yesterday were initiated more than a month ago with Mr. Vanderlip on the eve of his departure for Glacier National Park, W. T. Sellick of Los Angeles made a trip to New York and obtained his consent to the option, although the latter was inclined to sell. He explained that it was his expectation to visit Los Angeles at the conclusion of his vacation and go into the matter of proving the property. He was finally persuaded to consider an offer, however, and he then advised Mr. Lawyer in his city to undertake the negotiation.

OTHER NEAR BUYERS.
Before Mr. Vanderlip became the chief owner of the Bixby ranch, an estate associated romantically with the early settlement of California, it had figured in a series of transactions that made real estate history in Los Angeles. In 1912 Dr. Walter L. Funderberg of Pasadena appeared as a buyer of the property, but his option to purchase was later withdrawn. Later Edward L. Doherty, multifarious Los Angeles producer, obtained an option on the property, but before the terms of sale could be completed he permitted his option to lapse, and was thereby forfeited $25,000 to the Bixby family. It was then that Carl F. Schaefer, Santa Monica realty operator, nearly $75,444 before he finally withdrew. Later Edward L. Doherty, multifarious Los Angeles producer, obtained an option on the property, but before the terms of sale could be completed he permitted his option to lapse, and was thereby forfeited $25,000 to the Bixby family.

Mr. Vanderlip subsequently came to Los Angeles to inspect his purchase, and he became so enthusiastic over the development plan that he announced a plan which contemplated converting the great Palos Verdes hills and ocean front into a western country club. Newport, R. I., in which the purchaser expected to interest many notable easterners in building magnificent villas in Southern California as their winter homes. Mr. Vanderlip retained a site of five acres and built a large home, the latter was so favorably impressed with Schaefer's presentation that he sent Jay Lawyer and W. H. Foster, his attorney, to investigate, with the result that he deal was closed at a price said to have been $2,000,000.

MRS. MERRITT TO WED GATES.

Ex-Spouse of Millionaire's Son
Doesn't Deny It.

Nuptials of Society People to be Divorce's Sequel.

Final Decree to Mrs. Gates of Smart Set Awaited.

Southern California society was stirred to unusual interest yesterday when it became known that Mrs. Sallie Polk Merritt, divorced wife of Hulett C. Merritt, Jr., will marry Charles Clifford Gates of Pasadena as soon as the divorce from him obtained by Pauline B. Gates, a society favorite of the Crown City, becomes final. The principals in the forthcoming nuptials are both widely and prominently known in social circles.

Mr. Gates is the son of Charles A. Gates, a wealthy retired lumberman of Pasadena. Mrs. Gates was granted a divorce from him last June 23.

Mrs. Merritt, a great-grand-niece of President James K. Polk and the daughter of Mrs. R. N. Polk of 2875 Ingraham street, Pasadena, was granted a divorce Jan. 8, 1918, from Mr. Merritt, who is the vice-president of the Haupt Construction Company and of the Pacific States Corporation, and is a son of Hulett C. Merritt, Pasadena millionaire, president of the Pacific States Corporation and owner of the Merritt building at Eighth street and Broadway.

Mr. and Mrs. Merritt, Jr., were married at Pasadena in 1914, the wedding ceremony being one of the big social events of the year in the Crown City. Mrs. Merritt obtained her divorce at San Francisco within an hour after filing a suit in which she charged extreme cruelty, the action being a sequel to a suit of $100,000 damages from Courtland Hancock, the wealthy son of Mrs. M. Y. Hancock, also of Pasadena, for alleged alienation of Mrs. Merritt's affections. She made a sweeping denial of the charges.

At 21 Lakeview avenue, Venice, where Mrs. Merritt is staying for the summer, she declined yesterday to confirm or deny statements of her friends that she is engaged to marry Mr. Gates.

Mrs. Merritt did not look well for me to say anything," she said. "As Mrs. Gates will not be finally divorced for ten months yet, it will be in the papers about it. Mr. friends know my plans and that is sufficient."

DENIES HE KEPT THE CORPSE FOR A DEBT.
HOSPITAL MAN, CHARGED BY WIDOWER, TO BE GIVEN HEARING TODAY.

M. E. Hammond, head book-keeper of the Methodist Hospital, who was arrested late Monday afternoon when the body of Mrs. Bessie Schwartz of 261 East Main street, the wife of a well-known attorney, was found for a debt of $54, entered a plea of not guilty in Police Judge Chambers' court late yesterday afternoon. The case will be heard Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Although no witnesses were called yesterday, Mr. Hammond declared that he had nothing to do with the holding of the body for the $54 debt, and stated that he has no authority about the hospital. Attorneys Allen and Allen, who appeared in court for Mr. Hammond, stated that they would ask a jury trial and fight the case to a finish.

According to C. C. Lawton of the prosecuting attorney's office, and Police Officer W. C. Allen, who made the arrest, the body was held at the hospital when the widower, Sam Schwartz, failed to pay the $54. Following the arrest, the body was turned over to the W. C. Draper Undertaking Company.

Mrs. Schwartz died at the Methodist Hospital early Monday following a long illness.

MAY GIVE CONTRACT.
Supervisors to Take Up Lancaster-
Redman Road Today.

The contract for the highway from Lancaster to Redman, fourteen miles long, will probably be awarded by the Supervisors today. The lowest bidder is White & Gaskell, who offered to build the road for $218,000. Roger Brod bid $222,000. The highest bidder was Richard Rothwood, whose figures were $269,000.

The construction of the highway will be started as soon as the contract is made out, and it is expected to be finished in eight months. It will be eighteen feet wide, made five-inch macadam.

LAWLER INQUIRY WIDENED.

Grand Jury to Take up Shooting by Mrs.
Kafitz of Her Husband.

That the grand jury's inquiry into the Lawler bomb case will be of considerably wider scope than was at first expected was indicated last night when it was stated on high authority that the inquirers will hear evidence on the shooting by Mrs. Maud Kafitz, central figure in the case, of her elderly husband, William Kafitz, on December 27, 1917. In her testimony during the Kafitz will contest Mrs. Kafitz testified that she fired to frighten her husband. The matter is not outlawed and legally it would be possible, assuming that the evidence warranted it, to charge Mrs. Kafitz with assault with a deadly weapon with felonious intent, the investigators declare.

The grand jury investigation of the Lawler bombing will probably close with the examination of Mr. Lawler himself tomorrow. He told Dist. Atty. Woolwine that he would come to the Hall of Records where the grand jury is sitting, but added he had no clothes. Until he is properly attired he cannot leave St. Vincent's Hospital.

He will not face Mrs. Maud Kafitz in the grand jury room. "That is ridiculous," declared Mr. Woolwine last evening. "No one can be present, but the District Attorney, his deputy, the members of the grand jury."

Mr. Woolwine also branded as untrue the story that Mr. Lawler had made a demand upon him for the arrest of a woman.

The District Attorney frankly confesses he does not know what the grand jury will do. The case is in its hands to make any report it deems fit.

WOMAN IS WITNESS.
The appearance of Mrs. Kafitz before the grand jury yesterday gave the members an opportunity to study at close range a most remarkable woman. She walked majestically into the grand jury room, at 2:45 p.m., cast a brief, but keen glance at the detectives sitting in the witness-room, then, of course, repeating the story she has told and retold made no impression upon her. She left the grand jury shortly before 5 o'clock, calm and serene.

It is believed that no new facts were developed during her examination. No emotion showed on her face, neither anger, surprise, charn nor anxiety. The detectives working on the case, and Mr. Woolwine himself, declare that in checking up they found every statement she has made to them to be the truth. Admittedly, she did not at first tell all the truth, however.

Her examination was not completed yesterday. Various relics of the terrible bombing of Mrs. Lawler's home were exhibited to her. She viewed them coolly, apparently unmoved by their significance. One statement she made will be checked up later. This is to the effect that she lunched with Charles H. McGwire and a prominent business man of her husband, William Kafitz, she felt that she had not obtained justice in the trial of the will contest.

Although she faced the window through which McGwire threw him-

DIVORCE ACTION ENDS ROMANCE.

Mrs. LeRoy R. Crawford, Nee

Suit the Sequel to Secret
Santa Ana Marriage.

Court will Hear Monday Her
Charges of Cruelty.

The sequel to the sprightly romance of Mrs. Le Roy Raymond Crawford, formerly Miss Gladys Arend, well known in Los Angeles society, and the husband for which she abandoned a tour of the world after an unheralded Santa Ana marriage, will be staged in Judge Taft's court next Monday morning, when Mrs. Crawford's suit for divorce will be heard.

A month ago, it was learned yesterday, Mrs. Crawford left her husband and returned to the home of her parents. Later she retained Attorney Lyndol L. Young to secure for her a legal separation. She alleges extreme cruelty in her complaint, filed last Friday.

The marriage in 1915 attracted considerable attention in social circles, where both the Crawfords are widely acquainted. The romance began that summer, when Miss Arend was enjoying on Catalina with her parents. Mr. Crawford, the son of Mrs. J. G. Crawford of Westlake avenue and a member of a widely-known Los Angeles family, was spending a vacation on the island at the same time. The young people were seen a good deal together but, as Miss Arend was busy with preparations for a "round-the-world tour with her aunt, Mrs. Ralph Hagan, it was not thought the two were seriously intrigued. Mrs. Hagan had recently returned from a "seeing America first" trip and things were

THAT DESSERT CONTEST.

"Times" Housekeepers Offer a Great Variety of Tasty Recipes.

From the scores of letters received it is evident that Times housekeepers make a specialty of delicious desserts. As in former contests, to choose any "best" from such a bewildering variety is almost impossible, but it would seem that the three given below particularly meet the requirements of low cost, in these high-cost days, and can be quickly and inexpensively prepared.

Especially reasonable this month is Mrs. Adams'.

PEACH BETTY—(First Prize.)
Grease the inside of the baking dish with a little butter. Cover the bottom with dry bread crumbs. Dot with butter, add sugar and milk or water to moisten. Now add a layer of sliced peaches with sugar and a little butter, then more bread crumbs, more peaches and lastly, a thin layer of bread crumbs. Bake until well browned. Apples or berries may be substituted for the peaches. Serve this pudding with cream, with hard sauce or with a thickened sweet sauce made as follows:

One tablespoon flour, 1 tablespoon butter, melt and rub together; 4½ tablespoons sugar, mix; 1 scant pint warm water. Pour on above. Boil the mixture two or three minutes. Add vanilla or any desired flavoring. Mrs. E. E. Adams, 1818 E. North New Hampshire street, Los Angeles.

Regarding the second prize recipe, one of our Glendale subscribers writes: "The following recipe has been a favorite of mine lately because of its easy preparation, attractive appearance and low cost."

ORANGE Pudding.
The juice of four oranges, equal amount of water, one cup sugar; bring to a boil and strain. Return to fire and thicken with two well-tablespoons of cornstarch with little cold water. Mold and serve with whipped cream. Amount may be increased by enlarging proportions.

CANNED FRUIT TO RISE 40 PER CENT.

PEACHES AND PEARS WILL BRING 50 CENTS A CAN; CHERRIES 55 CENTS.

Did you read the news from San Francisco? The California Packing Corporation, announcing that canned fruit prices this year are to be 40 per cent. higher than last year.

Peaches are to go up 10 cents a can. Apples, peaches and pears will bring 50 cents a can this year, while Royal Anne cherries will sell for 55 cents a can to give the retailer a fair profit. At these tremendous prices the demand is bigger than the supply, and the corporation states that the estimated pack is practically sold.

California prune growers have the largest crop in the history of California. This year they will receive 13.6 cents a pound as against last year's price of 8.5, and the current price of 6 cents this year.

Europe is said to be bidding high for the fruit crop of California on money borrowed from the United States, which accounts for the high prices to the California consumers. No matter what drastic legislation may be enacted, it is unlikely that it will lower the price of next winter's canned goods, but why not provide yourself with a generous supply now, be independent of soaring prices by doing the canning yourself? The following recipes are reasonable and you can buy peaches by the tin box at prices that are not prohibitive.

PRESERVED PEACHES.
Select choice peaches and leave them whole. Boil the skins off, add salt to remove the down, or dip first in boiling water, and then in cold, and slip off the skins. Make a syrup by boiling three-fourths of a pound of sugar to each pound of fruit. Skim the syrup, then in it cook the peaches, a few at a time, until tender. Pour hot syrup over to fill the jars and seal. Brown sugar may be used for a change in flavor.

PEACH MARMALADE.
Pare and stone the peaches, cutting the pulp in small pieces. Add a few of the kernels from the stones and cook until soft; add an equal weight of sugar and stir occasionally while cooking, about fifteen minutes. Marmalade may be made of imperfect halves of fruit left from preserving.

PEACH BUTTER.
Pare ripe peaches and put them in a preserving kettle with sufficient water to boil them soft. Then cut through a colander, removing the stones. To each quart of peaches put one and a half pounds of sugar and boil very slowly one hour. Stir often, being careful not to let them burn. Put in stone or glass jars and keep in a cool place.

CANNED PEACHES.
If peaches are to be canned by the cold pack method, they should be blanched from one to two minutes and sterilized in water bath for sixteen minutes. They should be covered with medium syrup, using one cup of sugar and one cup of water, boiled in a covered pan for eight minutes. For peach marmalade, peach and apple jelly, baked peaches and sweet pickled peaches, these recipes are reliable and the finished product is delicious.

PEACH CONSERVE.
Pare, quarter and remove stones.

Amy Gaddis, 130 Franklin court, Glendale, Cal.

An excellent way of utilizing small amounts of fruit is to use them as suggested by a very young, but evidently a very capable, little housekeeper, who sent us her recipe for FRUIT TARTS (Third Prize).

One cup flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder, butter size of a walnut; enough milk to make a stiff batter. Peel and slice fruit. Fill custard cups half full and sprinkle with sugar, then add enough batter to fill the cup. Sprinkle with cinnamon and sugar. Bake in a moderate oven. To be eaten with an anchovy sauce. Ruth Berry (age 12), R. R. No. 2, San Gabriel, Cal.

Little Miss Berry also sent us a recipe for a cake which is different from the usual variety and yet would be very good, particularly on a plain test cake. She calls it "PEACH CAKE."

Two eggs whites beaten stiff; 1 glass jelly, 1-4 cup sugar, beat all together until stiff enough to spread. While it might not be strictly classed as "dessert," yet there can be no question that the very appetizing confection submitted by Mrs. Keeser is a honorable mention as a very timely recipe, for there could be nothing more appropriate to send to the friends and relatives "back East" than.

CANDIED FIGS.
Five lbs. of figs, 1 lb. of sugar, 1 cup of water. Put all into a granite pan and boil one hour with the cover on pan. Let stand until second day, remove the cover and boil one hour, let stand until the third day, with cover off, boil one hour, and until almost dry. Place on platter or waxed paper and dry four days in the sun, turning them each day. Roll in sugar and pack in jars or boxes. Three of four of these to each person makes a healthful dessert, and with cover off, boil one hour, and one which can be kept ever-ready. A walnut meat may be served on each fig. Mrs. J. W. Keim, 717 Maltman avenue.

from yellow cling peaches. To every four pounds of fruit make a syrup of one pound of cut loaf sugar and one-half teaspoon of water. Drop the peaches in a few at a time, and boil till clear and tender. Spread on large dishes and drain off all juice. Sprinkle with granulated sugar, and set them in the sun to dry for three days, each day turning them and sprinkling with sugar. When they are sufficiently dried, pack in glass jars, with dry sugar.

SWEET PEACH PICKLE.
Peel one gallon of clingstone peaches, boil one-half gallon vinegar with one-half pound of sugar. Add spices to taste. Spices should be tied in a bag. Pour over the peaches and put aside overnight. Then pour off and boil and again pour over the fruit. Do this three mornings, and the last time put fruit in syrup and boil till tender. Put in jar and cover tightly. Can be used at any time.

A simpler method—Seven pounds of peaches, four pounds brown sugar, one and one-half pints vinegar, one cup water, two-third cup stick cinnamon, one third cup whole cloves. Pare the peaches (either by hand or by machine). Have ready a syrup made of sugar, vinegar and water; add the spices and then add a few of the peaches to each quart of the syrup. Pressed into each; let cook a few minutes, turning the peaches if necessary, to soften all sides. Set in a cold or cold water. When all are cooked, reduce the syrup by boiling, and with it fill the jars to overflowing, putting some of the whole spices in each jar. Seal.

PEACH PRESERVES.
Peel the peaches and then cut into slices. Place in a preserving kettle and add one pound of sugar to every two pounds of fruit. Now add juice of one lemon, juice of one orange. Cook slowly until very thick and then fill into pint jars. Adjust the rubbers and partially tighten the lids. Process for twenty minutes in the hot water bath. Remove and cool and then store in a cool place. This preserve is a clear translucent product that is most delicious.

LUNCH BOX DESSERT.
Children always want "something sweet" with their luncheons. Mrs. King sends us a recipe which will take the place of the cheap and often injurious candies they're prone to buy. She calls it Dessert with Food Value. Chop in grinder one pound dried figs, 1 pound seedless raisins and one pound silver prunes (dried and taken from pits). Also grind one half pound raw or roasted peanuts. Mix well and pour into either hot chocolate fudge or hot fudge. Make into small balls. A dollar's worth of materials will make enough for two boys to carry in their luncheons every day for two weeks—Mrs. D. R. King, 6138 Mesa avenue, Los Angeles.

WANTED!

New Ways of Preparing Vegetables.

This is the time of the year when vegetables are plentiful and cheap, and the time when they should form a large part of the family menu. But many families rebel against a vegetable diet because of its lack of variety in preparation. The tomatoes and cucumbers are always served sliced raw; the corn is invariably boiled on the cob; the occasional serving of summer squash always appears creamed. Times housekeepers have had no such monotony in their cooking and that they serve many other vegetables than potatoes and tomatoes and corn. A trip through the big markets reveals all sorts of unusual vegetables—beans sprouts, artichokes, Chinese lettuce, okra, and many others that would add variety to a vegetable diet. We want to hear from our readers what success they've had in evolving new dishes of vegetables, how they serve satisfy and egg plant and the vegetables not usually a part of the daily menu. Have you discovered that some vegetable usually served raw is really better cooked? What's your best discovery for an unusual vegetable combination? Have you a different way of cooking potatoes or serving tomatoes? Won't you pass it along and give all these new housekeepers the benefit of your experience? To make it worth your while, The Times offers prizes of $5, $2 and $1 for the best recipes received not later than Saturday noon. Many of the recipes will be printed in this department; those crowded out may appear in the forthcoming revised edition of the Times Cook Book. Please write on one side of the paper only and be sure to include your name and address. Address all communications Editor Times Domestic Page.

SIMPLE DESSERTS FOR EVERY DAY.

Any of the following favorite desserts of our readers are readily prepared and will prove most appetizing.

Mrs. Dow says of her:
Rice Pudding.
Here is an old-fashioned rice pudding, that mother used to make. "It is delicious, healthful and inexpensive."

Wash two tablespoons of rice, put in a baking dish with same amount of sugar, one quart of milk, a pinch of salt, a teaspoonful of butter. Grate nutmeg over the top and bake very slowly for two hours, or until it becomes a thick creamy mass. Just at the last one-half cup of raisins may be added if desired. Serve as it is or with cream. Mable R. Dorr, 1812 North Berendo street, Hollywood.

Pineapple Tapioca Pudding.
1-2 cup instant or minute tapioca, 1-4 cup granulated sugar, 1 small can grated pineapple. Boil 3 cups of water, and stir in the tapioca. Mix sugar and pineapple, and then pour the tapioca over the pineapple, mix, and let cool. This will be enough for six people. A tablespoonful of vanilla ice cream on top of each dish is a delicious addition to the pudding. Mrs. H. B. Graeff, 4268 Woodlawn avenue, Blackberry Hill.

In a large, shallow baking dish make a syrup of:
1 cup sugar,
2 heaping teaspoons baking powder.

While this is heating make a rich biscuit dough, using:
1 pint flour,
2 heaping teaspoons baking powder,
1-4 teaspoon salt,
1-2 cup shortening.
Mix with milk, roll thin, cover with blackberries, sprinkle with sugar, roll up and place in syrup. Bake in moderate oven thirty minutes.

Slice in six portions and serve with sauce from the pan. Any fruit may be substituted for the blackberries. Mrs. Belle A. Janssen, R. D. No. 9, box 460, Los Angeles, California.

Molasses Pudding.
One-half cup sugar, one cup molasses, two level tablespoons of shortening, teaspoonful (level) of salt, level teaspoonful, one-half cup of water, one-half cup of soda mixed in one cup of hot water. Mix with flour and like sponge cake. Bake in shallow square tin. While hot cut into squares and serve with whipped cream. Mae L. Estey, 2104 Van Buren place, Los Angeles, California.

CONSERVE THE SOAP AND BUY IT IN BULK.

Reports from Chicago last week indicate that it is going to cost more to keep clean.

Advances in the wholesale price of soap have gone into effect, making the common brands of laundry soap from 25 to 75 cents a case higher. Toilet and fancy soaps are to be increased in proportion, it is declared.

Now is a good time to re-iterate the advice to buy soap by the boxful. Store it in a dry place where it will get the air. A case of soap will last much longer than one that is not. Don't use naphtha soap in hot water. They're intended for use with cold water and do the most effective work when used so. There is less waste in using the regular yellow or white laundry soap if they are made into a jelly. Shave, cover with boiling water and stir until soft. Every scrap of toilet soap can be utilized by melting into a jelly. Soap can be saved in the kitchen by the use of the long-handled little wire scraper. Scraps of soap placed in this and whisked through the dish water make a quick soda without a particle of waste.

THINGS TO KNOW.

Veils were originally worn by Jewish women for the purpose of covering up the hair.

If veils hurt the eyes and it is necessary to wear them at the seashore to prevent sunburn, they can be worn in the Turkish fashion, fastened at the back of the head. Colored material that is apt to fade and shrink should be placed in hot salt water and allowed to stand until the water is cold, in order to set the color and shrink the material before it is made up.

Placing a mirror where it will catch the light from an open doorway will lighten a small, narrow hallway and make it seem wider. Fastening a small piece of velvet in the back of a tight shoe with the nap outside will relieve pressing on the heel.

An unusual way to trim a ring—fasten at the back of the head. Colored material that is apt to fade and shrink should be placed in hot salt water and allowed to stand until the water is cold, in order to set the color and shrink the material before it is made up.

Is There Retail Meat Profiteering in Los Angeles or Anywhere —We Claim There Is—

But only in markets that sell cow beef and ewe mutton in their shops every business day other than occasionally at holiday time when these markets buy SOME steer beef for SHOW or PRIZE PURPOSES, and then only is there profiteering when cow beef markets sell COW BEEF at about the same price that other markets sell STEER BEEF.

—A much lower price for cow beef should apply to every ounce of the carcass including soup bones and fat.

—The average cost of cow beef alive is OVER 20%, and in extreme cases 50%, LESS PER LB. than steer beef. Cow beef has considerable more bone and waste than steer beef, and tests as follows:

STEER BEEF Average Meat in 100 lbs. 85 lbs.
Average Bone in 100 lbs. 15 lbs.
Total 100 lbs.

COW BEEF Average Meat in 100 lbs. 75 lbs.
Average Bone in 100 lbs. 25 lbs.
Total 100 lbs.

COW BEEF (Poor grade) Average Meat to 100 lbs. 65 to 70 lbs.

Read the daily live stock quotations in your daily paper and note the difference in wholesale prices between Cow Beef and Steer Beef.

—Steer beef and wether mutton carry greater food value per pound than the female, because the male is fed on rich food, and sold for meat only, whereas the female is generally sold after the time of their productive period—therefore the female is sold for food at an average of

Double the Age of the Male

This accounts for the large percentage of bone, water and toughness.

—Herein, then, is PROFITEERING, unless cow beef is sold at considerably less than prices charged for steer beef.

ONE CENT per lb. net profit is more than should be made at this time.

ONE CENT or less per sale net profit on steer beef is all the competition will permit.

OUR GREATER Cost of Living Brought

High cost of living is the most important topic in this country to-day, and the solution of the problem involved is now engaging the attention of the President, his Cabinet and Congress.

The Times domestic page has repeatedly called attention to this problem and its special application to the women of Los Angeles and other cities. Last week we printed in this department a comparative list showing the wide range of prices between the wholesale and the retail.

Housekeepers will be interested in knowing that the publication of this list has resulted in considerable protest that they could not charge less than they were. Some denied the truth of the figures. Not a few consumers thought that they thought them too conservative, and stated their inability to purchase the foodstuffs at the retail prices quoted.

Of course, the prices were secured directly from the wholesale and the retail markets. There was no guesswork about it, but it did open some eyes. This week The Times shoppers report that the range is not so wide, and that the level is lower.

The legitimate vendor doing business upon a legitimate profit, and taking all proper allowances has nothing to fear, either from the investigator of the government or the press. The profiteer is downright scared, and therein lies the salvation of the consumer.

WIDE PRICE RANGE.
The Times domestic editor has called attention repeatedly to the wide divergence in prices in different parts of the city. Often there would be no resemblance in the cost of an article of corresponding quality between stores only a few blocks apart.

A Main-street price often bore no relation to a Broadway price than a can of beans does to a dill pickle. A special investigator for the Philadelphia Public Ledger has discovered the same condition in the East. He notes that in respect to commodities of ordinary use, prices vary 25 per cent. in different localities in the same city, depending on what the dealer thinks he can get.

The thing has reached the stage of a craze on the part of both buyer and seller.

This authority believes that we are close to the zenith of prices, and he counts on some abatement of American extravagance, which is more manifest right now than it ever was before in the purchase of all sorts of luxuries and in the willingness to buy almost anything at any price without challenging the exactions of the vendor.

STORED FOOD RELEASED.
In an effort to give immediate relief from high prices, the War Department is disposing of about 341,000 pounds of foodstuffs to the public distribution commenced Monday, and is being made through the postoffice department. Postmaster is taking orders for the food from the public at the prices fixed by the War Department. The foods consist of canned vegetables, corned beef, ham, roast beef, fresh meats and poultry. It is expected that the entire supply, great as it is, will be disposed of within a week.

The following statement and prices are promulgated by the director of sales of the War Department:

The entire responsibility of the booking of orders and delivery of the goods will be assumed by the Postoffice Department. The Postoffice Department will requisition the goods from the War Department in case of carton lots only. Following is a list of prices at which the canned and cured meats and canned vegetables are offered for sale through the parcels post, and the quantity of each of these commodities now available. To these prices will be added cost of delivery:

The prices quoted are f.o.b. storage points. To these quotations the Postoffice Department will add postal rates. These prices are the basic prices used by the War Department in quoting the offering of these commodities for sale to municipalities. Municipalities where overhead expenses are incurred in making disposition of the food, must add to the price quoted by the government a sum sufficient to cover such expense.

The War Department is now determining the prices at which surplus subsistence commodities will be offered for sale through the parcels post service. These prices will be announced as soon as they are established.

TRY THESE IN YOUR ICE CREAM FREEZER.

Among the favorite desserts submitted by our readers are these two frozen ones. Surely ice cream can't be classed as needing a luxury tag when it is made as Mrs. Baldwin tell us in her

Rich Man or Poor Man's Ice Cream.
Makes 1-2 gallon when frozen.
1 quart milk.
2 tablespoons corn starch.
1-2 pint cream (or 1-2 cup milk and 1-2 cup condensed milk.)
1-2 cups sugar (scent.)
1 egg.
2 teaspoons vanilla.

Scald 2 cups of the milk in a double boiler. Mix corn starch and sugar together, and blend with other cup of milk, adding the beaten egg yolk. Mix thoroughly, and turn into hot milk, and cook 20 minutes. When cold, fold in stiffly beaten egg whites, vanilla, and cream.

Freeze. This ice cream is simply delicious and far surpasses much of the commercial production. The cost of a half gallon is less than a quart of the commercially retail article. It must be tried to be appreciated.—Mrs. Paul R. Baldwin, 1477 Morton Ave., Pasadena, Cal.

And if you're fond of ices, could you freeze anything more delicious than this Peach and Apricot Sherbet.

Pare fruit and put through sieve or colander and to 1-2 quarts of pulp add 1 quart water and juice of one lemon. Then take 2-4 pounds of sugar and one cup of water—boil until it thickens, then add 1 cup of boiling water to keep sugar from turning to candy. Let syrup get cold and add to pulp, then freeze.

It will make about 4 quarts of delicious sherbet—especially apricot.—Mrs. W. H. Horat, R. F. D., Box 66, Cucamonga, Cal.

JAILED FOR ABUSE.
Man Accused of Sending Insulting Letters Is Sentenced.

Charged with having sent insulting messages through the mails to City Prosecutor E. W. Widney and Attorney Thomas P. White, Fred J. Spring and Lou Guernsey, M. South late yesterday afternoon was sentenced by Police Judge Chambers to serve forty days in the City Jail or pay a fine of $40. South was unable to pay the fine and was locked in the jail.

According to the attorneys in the case, South was arrested and convicted some time ago and was sentenced by Thomas White, who was then a police judge. Since his first arrest and conviction, the man, according to the police, has been harassing all persons who were implicated in the first case with insulting and profane letters.

A QUICK DESSERT.

Lemon Snow Souffle.
4 rounding table spoons of corn starch, wet with 1-2 cup cold water, pour over one pint boiling water, stir fast until it comes to a boil, add 1-2 cup sugar, a very little salt, pour slowly over the stiffly beaten whites of 2 eggs, beating fast, then add juice and grated rind of one large lemon. Make a custard of the yolks to serve as a sauce. Mrs. W. G. McMillin, LaCanada, Cal.

AN EGGLESS RECIPE FOR A GOOD DESSERT.
Did you notice that little item from Monrovia the other day? That all records for altitude were to be broken in the California egg market during October and November and that the local poultrymen there anticipated that eggs would be at least 92 cents a dozen during those two months of least egg production. Cheerful news, isn't it? With that in mind, if you want to make any cakes this fall you'd better be sure to have this recipe Miss Stafford sends us for Agave Cake.

1-4 cup shortening.
1-2 cup sugar.
1 tbsp. molasses (Karo or table).
1 tsp. vanilla.
1-2 tsp. salt.
1-2 cup milk.
1-2 cups flour (do not sift before measuring).
2-3 cup raisins.
1-3 cup nuts.
1-4 cup soda.
1-4 cup baking powder.

Cream together the shortening and sugar; add the molasses, vanilla and salt. Sift flour with baking powder and soda, and add alternately with milk. Add raisins and nuts. Bake in a moderate oven.

More fruit may be added if desired; or it may be left out altogether and be made into a layer cake. Miss Ethelyn Stafford, R. F. D. No. 1, Box 49, San Gabriel, Cal.

STOLE MUCH JEWELRY.
Snack thieves late yesterday afternoon ransacked the home of Mrs. A. F. Fraleigh, 1215 West Thirtieth place, and escaped with jewelry valued at $1,000. According to Mrs. Fraleigh, the thieves secured a ring set with sixteen diamonds and several other rings set with single stones. Police who investigated the burglary discovered that the thieves entered the place with pass keys.

A DISCOVERY THAT BENEFITS MANKIND
Two discoveries have added greatly to human welfare.

In 1855 Newton originated the vacuum process for condensing milk with cane sugar to a semi-liquid form.

In 1885 Horlick at Racine, Wis., discovered how to reduce milk to a dry powder form with extract of malted grains, without cane sugar.

This product MORLICK named Malted Milk. (Name since copied by others.) Its nutritive value, digestibility and ease of preparation (by simply stirring in water) and the fact that it keeps in any climate, has proved of much value to mankind as an ideal food-drink from infancy to old age.

Ask for MORLICK'S—Avoid imitations.

ROCK BOTTOM STORES
Some Real Honest to Goodness Prices—No Camouflage

The first ROCK BOTTOM STORE was opened in 1914 and our volume of business for that year amounted to less than $30,000. We added two more in 1915, four in 1916, fifteen in 1917 and sixteen to date in 1918, and our total volume of business for this year bids fair to reach the $2,000,000 mark. Some foodstuffs.

We operate on a cash, no delivery, basis. Our method of operation is the same as that of the successful chain stores of the East. We have clean, small stores in residential neighborhoods only, handling for the greater part by one man in each store. We have no down town stores and do not co-operate with any other firm. We have very little money tied up in fancy fixtures because every dollar thus invested increases the cost of operation. We expend a liberal amount of money for advertising, but not extravagantly. We make every effort to operate along economical lines and sell our merchandise accordingly. We try to sell everything in the grocery line at a fair profit and do not attempt deception by lowering some prices as bait. Our efforts are guided by the sole desire to deal honestly and courteously with our patrons.

We are today employing 125 persons at the best wages paid in the grocery line in the City of Los Angeles or anywhere in Southern California. Now this phenomenal growth has forced us to acquire modern and more commodious quarters for the base of supply to our thriving, conveniently located neighborhood ROCK BOTTOM STORES, as we are preparing to move to our new location at No. 732 Union Terminal, Seventh and Alameda, where, with abundant floor space on seven stories, complete modern equipment and track facilities, we shall be in position to continue adding to the many superior trading advantages which the ROCK BOTTOM STORES have brought to the communities wherein they are already established and to these other localities which will be similarly accommodated within the near future.

To move the supply base of these 48 modern, up-to-date groceries, as you have come to know the ROCK BOTTOM STORES, is no light task in itself. We have anticipated the effort it involves and so as to relieve the pressure at the last moment as much as possible, we have been gradually transferring additional stocks of seasonable goods to our various stores while our new quarters were being fitted up for occupancy. SPEEDER NEAR DEATH.

Motorcyclist Collides With Auto and Fractures Skull.
Desire to see how fast a new motorcycle could travel will probably cost E. S. Repper, 18 years old, 2721 Melrose avenue, his life, as the result of an accident late yesterday afternoon at Fountain street and Normandie avenue, Hollywood.

According to witnesses, Repper was proceeding west on Normandie at an excessive speed. At Fountain street the machine struck an auto owned and driven by Frank Leigh, 1497 Toberman street. The impact catapulted Repper thirty feet through the air.

When he was taken to the Receiving Hospital, it was found he had suffered a depressed fracture of the skull. Drs. Goodrich and Dietrich immediately operated in an effort to save the young man's life, but little hope is held for his recovery.

Mr. Leigh was arrested by Detectives Bowe and Taylor but, after taking the statements of witnesses, they released him and exonerated him of all blame.

ALLEGED BANKRUPTCY.
Creditors of Albert E. Judd, a merchant of Redlands, filed an involuntary petition in bankruptcy in the United States District Court, yesterday. The petitioners were the Globe Grain and Milling Company, with a claim in excess of $5000; Adgeler and Musser Seed Company, $1200; Spreckels Brothers Commercial Company, of San Diego, $400; and M. L. Germain, of this city, $427. The court is asked to declare Judd bankrupt within the purview of the law. A number of alleged bankrupts are charged against the Redlands merchant.

Para Anderson, Santa Ana.

Another reasonable corn recipe, excellent in utilizing the left-over corn is:

CORN SALAD.

Cut cooked boiled corn from the cob and be sure that it is young and tender. To each cup of corn pulp add one slice of minced white onion, one teaspoon of finely chopped pimento, one-half cup of shredded, crisp cress and tablespoon of chopped sweet pickle. Moisten with a French dressing and serve in cups made of scooped out green peppers or lettuce leaves.

COMPANY DESSERT.

When you are going to have guests and wish to prepare something a bit more elaborate for dessert you'll enjoy trying Mrs. Carpenter's excellent recipe for

MACAROONS.

Whites of two eggs.

1-2 cup granulated sugar.

2 cups corn flakes.

Beat whites of eggs stiff, add other ingredients.

Drop from spoon on buttered pan, bake in moderate oven until light brown.

Will make 2 dozen.—Mrs. M. B. Carpenter, 446 S. Bonnie Bree St., City.

And a very delicious dish to go with these macaroons would be Heavenly Hash.

Two oranges, two bananas, one lb. mixed nuts, one-half lb. of dates, one-half lb. of figs, one half lb. of raisins, grapes, one lb. shredded coconut.

Quarter oranges, slice bananas, cut dates and figs in half, shell nuts, into a mold place a layer of each until the mold is filled. Then pour over it one box of gelatin, made according to directions on box. Serve cold with whipped cream.—Mae L. Kestey, 3104 Van Buren Pl., Los Angeles, Cal.

If you have any macaroons left over they could be used for Macaroon Pudding.

Yolks of 2 eggs.

1-2 teaspoon of lemon or almond.

1 teaspoon cornstarch.

1 pint milk.

1-2 cup sugar.

Line dish with macaroons, beat yolks, add sugar and cornstarch, a little cold milk. Put nearly a pint of milk in a double boiler, stir in mixture, flavor and cook until it thickens. Pour over macaroons, beat whites with a little pulverized sugar and spread over top. Brown lightly if desired. Set in a cool place.—Mrs. S. B. Echlin, 1411 Formosa Ave., Hollywood, Cal.

agent for the erection of several other fine temples of art in this district.

As demolition of the church will start immediately, it is understood that the First Methodist Church will conduct its Sunday services in the Mason Opera House, on Broadway between First and Second streets, until its permanent edifice can be built.

The purchase of this valuable piece of property," said Gilbert S. Wright, of the Wright, Callender, Andrews Company, "proves that Los Angeles is a big city and is destined to become even greater. It shows the big business men, hotel men and industrial men, as well as theatrical men have faith in the growth and importance of Los Angeles."

FILMS, MUSIC, DANCING.

Mr. Grauman stated yesterday that the Metropolitan will be devoted to the production of the best in motion pictures, music and dancing. It is planned to have some of the world's greatest operatic stars sing at the Sunday concerts and there will be ballet-dances de luxe.

Popular prices will be in force. Mr. Grauman declared, he will continue present policies at the theater at Third street and Broadway and is at present arranging to open a third theater. He said he has about agreed on the location but has not closed the deal for the property. The third house, he said, will be known as Presentation Run House, and pictures there will be run several weeks at a time.

EASE UP SOME MORE ON PASSPORT RULES.

YOU CAN GO TO EUROPE IF OBJECT OF VISIT IS "REASONABLE."

Further relaxation of passport restrictions is announced by the State Department, through an official order received yesterday by Charles N. Williams, clerk of the United States District Court, signed by R. W. Flournoy, Jr., chief of the division of passport control.

Applicants for passports to European countries will no longer be required to show urgent reasons for their visits; they must merely set out in their affidavits that the object of their trips is reasonable and legitimate.

Restrictions as to age no longer apply.

After November 1 passports will be obtainable for pleasure trips to Europe.

No passports to "enemy countries" or to Russia may be issued as yet, but as soon as diplomatic relations with Hungary and Germany have been resumed the Department of State will consider applications for permits to visit these countries.

Passports may now be issued to new countries recently created from territory formerly German or Austrian, when urgent necessity for the proposed trips is shown. Such countries included are Poland, Czechoslovakia and the kingdom of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes. The department is loath to issue passports to Poland, however, unless the visit is imperative, because of the lack of transportation facilities in that country.

Owing to the present attitude of the British government passports are not being issued to India, New Zealand and Australia for pleasure trips.

Before making requests for passports to any country, applicants are advised to ascertain if they have the approval of consuls and are sure of steamship passage.

WON MANY HONORS.

Maj. Brewer, Native Son, Returns With Fine Record.

Another native son, Maj. James Arthur Brewer, of 3538 Stanford avenue, this city, has returned from war service overseas with much good work to his credit and many high compliments from his superiors. Coming directly with the Thirty-fifth Division of the Third Army from Coblenz, Germany, he got his discharge a few days ago in San Francisco and is about to return to his former position as a teller in the Guaranty Trust and Savings Bank, Los Angeles.

Maj. Brewer had been in the National Guard here for a dozen years, and when the nation entered the European war he volunteered and was commissioned as a first lieutenant at the officers' training camp in San Francisco. Among the big battles in which he was a participant were Verdun, the Argonne and St. Mihiel, serving throughout as a staff officer. The major is married and has a host of friends here.

AFTER THOSE FEES.

The county yesterday sued Sheriff Cline on a writ of mandate to compel him to turn into the county treasury fees paid for Federal prisoners totaling $4094. The fees run back to April, 1918. The Sheriff is allowed 35 cents a meal for Federal prisoners. The county allows him 12 cents a meal for prisoners.

Here's How with brew from Bebe Syrup

Bebe Syrup produces a brew that's got the good old taste and aroma. And lots of foam.

Follow the directions on the can. Do not use extra quantities of Bebe Syrup as that would produce a drink containing more alcohol than the dry laws permit.

Every half pound of Bebe Syrup added to 5 gallons of water produces 1/2% alcoholic strength by volume.

It won't upset your stomach like acid fruit drinks do. It aids digestion.

It's easy to make. There's no skill or apparatus required.

Costs only 7¢ a quart to make. At grocers and druggists.

ment eleven stories below, she asked no questions. On a previous visit to the District Attorney's office, it is said, she did inquire fully into the particulars of McGwire's spectacular dash to death. She met Werner McGwire, the dead man's son, in the hall and nodded pleasantly.

WITH POLICE ESCORT. Mrs. Kaffitz arrived at the Hall of Records in company with Detective Sergeant Cline and Murphy a few minutes before 3 o'clock and was taken to Mr. Woolwine's office. She was there when Deputy Sheriff Lips and Anderson were taken into the grand jury room by Dist. Atty. Woolwine and Chief Deputy District Attorney Doran.

The two officers were in the grand jury room for about half an hour. As they emerged from the inquisitorial chambers they were followed by Mr. Woolwine, who led the way to his office for Mrs. Kaffitz and Detective Sergeant Cline. Attired in a neat, well-fitting street dress, large picture hat, and carrying a party handbag, Mrs. Kaffitz walked down the long hall, displaying neither fear, annoyance nor surprise.

The detectives who found various incriminating things at the Serrano house testified and exhibited the articles. They were Deputy Sheriff Lips and Anderson, and Detective Cline and Murphy. Werner McGwire, the elder brother of Elmer McGwire, who was examined yesterday, was before the grand jury for a short time.

COURT UPHOLDS WAR BEER.

Presiding Judge Works yesterday issued an order restraining Chief of Police Home from arresting Frank Pece of San Pedro for selling 2.75 per cent. beer. This order is under the decision of Judge Wells who held that under the law as it stands now, dealers have the right to sell beer of this percentage of alcohol.

Deputy City Attorney Mealy waited on Judge Works and obtained his consent to be present if another injunction suit of this order comes before the court. The City Attorney holds that the sale of 2.75 per cent. beer, is in violation of the Gandier ordinance and that his office will fight the matter until the Supreme Court passes on the question.

The restraining orders issued by the Superior Court affect only the parties suing for an injunction and not beer sellers at large.

A search of the entire city by Sergeant of Police Gifford, yesterday failed to bring any arrests under the Gandier ordinance, which is now being enforced to the letter by orders of Chief of Police George K. Home. According to the chief all persons who have no licenses to sell the 2.75 per cent. beer will be arrested and prosecuted to the full extent of the law. Under the Gandier ordinance a full meal must be served with liquor and a restaurant license as well as a liquor license is necessary before the war time beer can be sold.

Jacob Fieber and a number of other liquor men who were arrested Monday under the Gandier ordinance appeared in police court yesterday and through their attorneys Thomas White and Claire Woolwine asked for time to enter their pleas. The cases were set over for two days.

The Boyle Heights M. E. Church, Vermont Square, Christian Church and Calvary Baptist Church have sent communications to the City Council urging the passage of the Anti-Saloon League's proposed city "bone-dry" ordinance. The Council referred the communications to the Public Welfare Committee which is considering the proposed ordinance.

Plan Aerial Service to Arrowhead and Bear Lake.

The Mercury Aviation Company is to have aviation fields at several mountain resorts. Work has begun on the landing field at the Arrowhead Hot Springs and the company will be ready to carry passengers to and from that resort to Hollywood within a week.

Landing fields and hangars are now being arranged for at other popular recreation centers and it is expected that before the end of this season Mercury planes will invade the heart of the wilds at Big Bear Lake.

General Manager G. E. Fieber of the Mercury Company says it will be possible to land a passenger at Arrowhead within forty-five minutes after he leaves Big Bear field in Hollywood. By motor from Los Angeles the shortest possible time is in the neighborhood of three hours.

Young Girls Arrested Here
Come from Portland by Begging Auto Rides.

Saying they had beaten their way from Portland, Or., by begging rides in passing automobiles, two girls were taken into custody late yesterday afternoon on a telegraphic warrant from Portland, when Patrolmen Torres and Vaughan recognized them as they were standing at Fifth and San Pedro streets.

At Central Station the girls admitted they are Theresa Bostino, 17 years of age, and Marie Schrader, 18, for whom the authorities of Pacific States had been searching two months. They said they had been using the names of Jackie and Bobbie Vernon and that they had had no trouble in reaching Los Angeles by begging rides in automobiles.

They were transferred to Juvenile Hall and will be returned to Portland as soon as an officer arrives to get them.

OSBORNE TO LEAVE TODAY.

Congressman Henry Z. Osborne, who rushed from Washington to Los Angeles eleven days ago to participate in the reception of the Pacific Fleet and to interest naval officials in a Los Angeles naval base, will return to the national capital today.

He will leave at 10 o'clock this morning via the Santa Fe.

Mr. Osborne has taken up many matters during his brief visit here which are of vital importance to Southern California, and these he will present to the national Congress for consideration.

Much of his time was devoted to gathering data on the proposed naval base. He spent much time with Secretary of the Navy Daniels in discussing plans of the new naval base and was with the Naval Secretary when he inspected the favored site at Los Angeles Harbor.

"I am sure the people of Los Angeles will present the desired site as the best at Los Angeles Harbor, which will hasten the construction of the naval base," he said last night.

Congressman Osborne will also devote much of his time to the solution of the high cost of living problem, to the Los Angeles aqueduct right-of-way bill and to the all-day diversion proposition at the harbor.

grand ball held a week ago, but the interior presented such a beautiful sight, with its costly decorations, that the reception committee offered it to the American Legion for a dance before it should be dismantled.

On the floor of the big auditorium last night mingled soldiers and sailors and Red Cross nurses. The music was furnished by a big band recently organized by the local post of the legion, which is composed of overseas soldiers and sailors.

FOR BELGIAN RELATIONS. Charles Winsel, Belgian vice-consul for Southern California, requests all Belgian-born citizens who desire to bring relatives from Belgium to submit to him all particulars about them and proper certificates of maintenance. The Belgian legation will then submit the data to the Department of State and the emigration of the relatives may have to be expedited.

JOINT ANNOUNCEMENT

Nemours Trading Corporation Perfection Tire & Rubber Co.

To Automobile & Tire Dealers:

Current with this announcement a contract becomes operative between the Nemours Trading Corporation, New York City, and Perfection Tire & Rubber Co., Ft. Madison, Iowa, and Wabash, Indiana.

Thereby the former becomes the exclusive General Sales Department for world-wide distribution of the entire output of the "PERFECTION" brand of Tires and Tubes.

This arrangement consolidates the former existing "Nemours" contract controlling the export trade of "PERFECTION" Tires into one universal operation.

Under the insistent domestic and pressing foreign demand for "Perfection" Tires this advance solves an economic problem for "Perfection" by releasing its organization forces now engaged in market development to employment of direct pressure in multiplying production and maintaining the "World Famous" quality of its tires, thus enabling "Perfection" to continue its amazing progress—the marvel of all Tiredom—and step forward to its "Place in the Sun" as the sixth largest and "One Best" tire enterprise.

To Automobile and Tire Dealers—likewise the general public—the Nemours Trading Corporation requires no introduction, the antecedent and present control having been for the past century a world-wide symbol of business integrity and adequate financial resource.

We are assured, and proudly pass this assurance on to the friends of "Perfection," that under the guidance of the "Nemours" masterful organization it will make for a brilliant future in marketing "Perfection" Tires wherever automobiles are in use throughout the world. Automobile and Tire Dealers are requested to write for further information in regard to "Perfection" territory, appointments, etc., hereafter to the General Sales Departments of

To the Automotive Trade,
Gentlemen:

The NEMOURS TRADING CORPORATION announces that it has become affiliated in the production and distribution of Perfection Tires and Tubes, manufactured by the Perfection Tire & Rubber Company, of Fort Madison, Iowa.

The NEMOURS TRADING CORPORATION, by its own representation in the Directorate of the Perfection Company, will dominate its manufacturing policy and through its own sales organization, will distribute Perfection products throughout the world.

With the financial resources and distributing facilities enjoyed by this Company, maximum cooperation in sales efforts is assured all agents representing the Perfection line.

Warehouses and service stations will be established throughout the United States, which insure prompt deliveries of all orders on a product which is true to its name.

This is a merchandising proposition which no tire dealer can afford to overlook and we invite correspondence.

KEEL KLAR TO SCHEDULE GOOD BOXING CARD AT AUGUST SMOKER.

The fans of the San Pedro Shipbuilders' Keel Klub are looking forward with a great deal of anticipation to the boxing card for the smoker of August 21. Jack Lowe, who heads the bill with Lang Finn, can be remembered as the boy with the muscle-bound arms. He put up a good bout some weeks ago with Gordie Mitchell of the Craig unit.

Gordie Mitchell and Henry Gastine, two boxers of no mean ability, will follow. These boys combine cleverness with boxing science, and should provide an interesting bout.

Jack Harmer, one of Jim Myra's riverboats, will go on with Louis Parker. We have all seen Harmer go, and know what he carries in his right hand. Parker is one of Tut Ellis's steam fitters, and if he fights like he fits pipe, there will be something doing in this bout.

Hash and Hill Ogle will be ready for plenty of action when Paul Laughlin rings the song for the fourth event. Hash proved that he is a human sawmill in his bout with Paul Herman a few weeks ago.

Leo Rose has a knockout to his credit against Joe Rooney, and Joe is out to even up the score. Rose is one of Fisher's blacksmiths and loves to box. Rooney says that he wants to box a blacksmith who loves to box, so we expect these big fellows to tear up the scenery in the main event.

Oh, ye ruffled fans whose hearts are aching at the fall of the angels from the land of the toga really beat the angels, 3 to 1. Many fans find in these terse remarks all they care to hear about a game. For the benefit of those, however, that came late and have a few moments to spare from the carping cares of high prices and the universal unrest of mankind, we shall make a slight digression, not shall this slight detour be in the way of a red herring drawn across the path for the sake of intriguing the unwary.

AUSTRALIANS WIN TITLE.

Take Doubles Tennis Championship from Tilden and Richards.

[BY FRED HAWTHORNE.]

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

BOSTON (Mass.) Aug. 19.—Norman Evered Brookes and Gerald L. Patterson, the great Australian pair, won the doubles lawn tennis championship of the United States this afternoon on the Longwood Cricket Club at Chestnut Hill by defeating William T. Tilden, II, and Vincent Richards, the titleholders, by a score of 6-4, 6-3, 4-6, 4-6, 6-2.

A GREAT BATTLE. The youthful American pair made a splendid uphill fight against almost overwhelming odds when Brookes and Patterson led them at two sets to none, and by superb tennis squared the match by taking the third and fourth sets. It seemed when the fourth set was won in a blaze of brilliance by Tilden and the boyish Richards, that American youth and speed were about to triumph over the wonderful finesse of Brookes and the hurricane tactics of the stalwart Patterson. But just at that point in the struggle experience told its old story and the Australians, steady down the match, the terrific attack by Tilden and Richards took command of the situation and pulled out the final set without difficulty with the veterans Brookes always the commanding figure in the rallies.

But if Brookes was a gladiator, all his own, young Richards was only a trifle behind him in brilliance of shot and steady nerve in the pinches, except in the final set, where he seemed to feel the strain and

There were tumultuous scenes in the stands when Tilden, racing in from the base line, won the last game of the fourth set by smashing with tremendous force a short ball sent up by Patterson. The ball bounded high over the backstop net, Brookes making a wild back-hand stab at it and the defending champions had won the set, and brought the great match all even. Men threw their hats into the air, the women waved their parasols, and wild shrieks arose from all over the stands.

CROWD STUNNED. When it was all over, and the crowd, stunned for a moment at the triumph of the Australians, saw the four players shaking hands at the net and saw the tall Tilden laughing as he and Brookes walked off the court together, the match growing cheers for the victors. Men hurried over the low railing about the courts and ran to congratulate the Australians. The grim-visaged Brookes, his face lit with a smile now, accepted the tributes with an "Oh, thanks very much," Patterson, younger, not so accustomed to the things as his partner, was frankly delighted, and his ruddy face was wreathed in one huge smile.

RAH FOR RICHARDS. But if Brookes was a gladiator, all his own, young Richards was only a trifle behind him in brilliance of shot and steady nerve in the pinches, except in the final set, where he seemed to feel the strain and

If you found a letter from another woman in your husband's pocket - what would you do ?

WOULD you faint? Would you send for a lawyer? Would you remain silent and wait? Or would you do what Mrs. Madden did, when the other woman came along? How would you act if you were in her position? "The test of a woman's quality," says Corra Harris, "is how she conducts herself when she finds that another woman is stealing her husband's love." If you want to know how to hold a husband's love begin reading

"Happily Married," by Corra Harris

Author of "Making Her His Wife," "The Circuit Rider's Wife," etc.

Mrs. Harris makes you see the inner workings of the mind of a woman who was too sure of her husband and of a husband who was too sure of himself. In this new novel she shows you just how a man thinks and why he acts in such peculiar ways. And oh! how Mrs. Harris does know her own sex! She understands every emotion they feel. She divulges all their little tricks in a most delicious manner. If you want to learn how to manage a man without letting him know it, read this extremely entertaining three-part novel beginning in Pictorial Review for September.

What makes a man different after he's married?

It was constantly argued during the middle ages that a man is bound to rule his wife

DID it ever occur to you that every married man has a double personality? Why is your husband different from the man you married? What is the reason? You probably know a dozen couples who are unhappily married. Why? What is the matter with marriage?

Havelock Ellis, the eminent English sociologist, says that nine times out of ten it is the man's fault and then he gives some startling reasons for his theory. What do you think? In a brilliant and searching article in the September Pictorial Review, Mr. Ellis tells why husbands and men are two different things—and how this difference lies at the very root of "the marriage question."

He says that marriage is a risky experiment and nothing more. And that the system that worked five hundred years ago won't work today. The war has created a tremendous upheaval in the marriage relationship.

What is going to happen? Read what this supreme authority has to say on this subject in his sensational article in Pictorial Review for September called "What Makes a Man a Husband?"

This is the first of a remarkable series of articles on marriage which will appear in Pictorial Review this Fall.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—The stock market gave a better account of itself today, prices recovering materially in a number of leading shares on the better feeling engendered by the settlement of the local traction strike.
The day was not without its disquieting influences, however, a new phase developing in the Mexican situation, while complete demoralization was witnessed in the foreign exchange market, with sterling francs and lire at lowest quotations ever recorded at this center.
Oil shares were depressed as a result of reports indicating that the Navy Department contemplates drastic action because of the refusal of Pacific refiners to sell their product on terms imposed by the government.
Trading was in smaller volume than yesterday, but the movement which was at its best in the last hour on the demand for equipments and steel, comprehended a relatively greater variety of issues.
The transportation division was the most notable exception to the higher trend, that group failing to make more than slight response to advices from the northwest, telling of beneficial rains over agricultural centers. Sales amounted to 1,025,000 shares.
Bonds, especially rails, were irregular, with Liberty issues, the foreign group holding steady. Total sales, par value, aggregated $12,300,000.
Old United States bonds unchanged on call.

Draft of China's Revised Tariff

WE HAVE just embodied in booklet form the complete draft of China's Revised Tariff. In addition to a tabulated classification of rates on all merchandise subject to tax, the booklet contains the rules governing the administration of the tariff.

The new tariff became effective August 1st, and we are officially advised by Consul General E. S. Cunningham, at Hankow, China, that the State Department does not intend of its own accord to raise any objection to its enforcement.

American exporters and manufacturers interested in trade with China will find this booklet of much value. It will be sent, without charge, on request.

Do not hesitate to call on us—personally or by mail—about your particular problems relative to trade with China.

Do You Want Some Real Information About Texas?

Experts have been busy for weeks preparing the most complete Geological and Statistical Map of Texas ever compiled. This Map is now ready for you. It cost $10,000 to prepare and is worth it. On the face of the map, which measures 15x25 inches, are shown geological surface structures, with brief explanation of their character in every-day language. We also show oil and gas fields; accurately located, with average production of each field. Location, size and ownership of all refineries operating or under construction. Location of all principal pipe lines and ownership. Railroad, county lines and principal towns.

On the reverse side appear the following tables and charts:

Table showing increase in crude oil and gasoline consumed and number of automobiles in use from 1908 to 1909.

Chart showing increase in production of crude oil from 1908 to 1909, inclusive, comparing production of United States, Texas and the world.

Table showing number of wells drilled and number producing for each field from 1908 to 1909.

Table showing approximate production for each of the principal oil fields in Texas for 1908 and 1909.

Table showing dividends paid by principal North Texas companies from date of organization to March, 1909, inclusive; also dividends paid by large, old-established oil companies over a long period of years.

VALUATION LIKE AN EMPIRE'S.

Report of Auditor Shows City Grows Vastly in Territory, Too.

The City Auditor reported to the City Council yesterday that the total assessed value of property in Los Angeles is $422,045,550, and that the city and annexed districts have an acreage of 97,166.

request was granted.

Aside from the stoning of an early car yesterday morning at North Broadway and Bolinas avenue, and the greasing of tracks at several south and western points, the Los Angeles Railway reported but little disturbance.

WOULD WRECK TRAIN.

Pacific Electric officials reported that iron pipes were placed on the track near San Pedro late Monday night with the evident intention of derailing the Catalina crowd homeward bound, but a wreck was averted. It was also said that strikers had poured cement into the pistons of a steam engine used in switching at El Segundo. The El Segundo oil trains are now being handled by the Standard Oil Company by the Southern Pacific Railway.

Both lines involved in the strike have already received verbal threats that dynamiting will be resorted to the first time late cars are operated. This, the officials say, will not deter them from running cars as soon as they can obtain a few more special officers.

A force of police was kept in reserve at Central Police Station all day. During the day the police informed that some of the downtown streets were being blocked by strikers and their friends but the strikers were dispersed by the police.

Late yesterday afternoon George W. Churchill, special agent in charge of the prosecuting attorney's office and swore to a complaint against J. C. Churchill stating that Nash attempted to drag a loyal motorman from the platform of a Glendale car near Sixth and Main streets late Sunday afternoon. Police Judge Chambers issued a warrant charging Nash with disturbing the peace and fixed bail at $25.

John G. Leftman, Ganse Leftman and George G. Smith, all strikers, who were arrested Sunday night on charges of disturbing the peace and then released under $15 bail each, were taken into Police Court yesterday morning and entered pleas of not guilty. The three men asked for jury trials and the case was set for September 12. The men are at large under $15 bail.

GIFTS TO LOYAL MEN.

"High praise is accorded by the committee," officials and the public alike to the loyal men who have stayed at their posts of duty on the platforms of the cars in the face of bitter abuse and worse from those who deserted at the behest of the walking delegates. Many platform men on both lines gave their northern union cards rather than join a strike which they believed unfair to the companies, the public and themselves.

In many instances the feeling of great appreciation felt by the car-using public for the loyal workers has taken the form of gifts added to the strike bonuses paid by the companies. This has had a tendency to strengthen in the men the knowledge that they are fulfilling their duty and discharging serious obligation to the people.

NO "GENERAL STRIKE."

Frantic efforts made by various labor leaders yesterday to call a general strike here in an effort to paralyze business and win the transportation strikes are said to have met with but a faint response, but they are taken as an indication that the platform strikers fully realize that the issue has been hopelessly lost.

Many trade unions were yesterday called upon to join in a sympathetic strike, but no response was made. Agitators hoped to get the telephone workers to quit their jobs, but the telephone men, already short of money because of a six weeks' strike, declared that they could not afford to finance another walkout. The telephone strike, which is almost without funds. Painters and paperhangers are satisfied, and the carmen are so happy over present conditions that they have repeatedly declined to strike at meetings in recent weeks. Practically all the union men in the city are in favor of the strike, but the strikers have gone through unsuccessful strikes in recent months, and they realize as well as the striking trainmen do that the issue is a hopeless one, it is believed.

SERVICE BETTER.

The Los Angeles Railway ran a normal service yesterday except at rush hours, and then a 75 per cent. service was maintained, according to reports. The chief dispatcher, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, said that he was able to release three assistants for were running so smoothly he was other workers.

On the Pacific Electric a five minute service on Sunset boulevard was maintained most of the day. In the morning the company was in the employ of the Los Angeles Railway were bus company Monday. While doing this work they say they recorded many instances where picketers used violence in the streets in addressing women who were riding on the cars. Officers were unable to get service on P. D. children of the yellow line strike committee.

NO ARBITRATION.

Both sides have practically rejected arbitration in advance of the coming D. Roundtree who is directing the Pacific Electric strike, said yesterday it was a dispute in which arbitration had no place, and company officials are said to be lukewarm toward mediation, although willing to entertain committees if any present themselves.

just about ready for the longer journey with the niece.

Then, one Sunday, Mr. Crawford left the island for the mainland. Two days later Miss Arend told her parents she wanted to go to Los Angeles to see her aunt, Mrs. Hagan, whom she had not visited since the latter's return from the American world tour. The world trip, the girl said, was to be planned. It was, but it got no further than the planning because the following day, Wednesday, Miss Arend and Mr. Crawford were married at Santa Ana.

The bride at once telephoned Mrs. Hagan that she could not go on the world tour, because her new husband could not spare her. That was the first the family knew of the nuptials and the tidings were sent by wireless to the bride's mother and father, who were still on Catalina.

In her divorce suit, following the break of a month ago, Mrs. Crawford, it is said, is asking for alimony. The exact nature of the allegations on which she founds her case has not been revealed. Also, it is not yet known whether Mr. Crawford will make any attempt to fight the action.

He is at present associated with a brother in an oil and automobile accessories business on West Seventh street.

ZIONIST DELEGATES FROM LOS ANGELES.

Dr. L. G. Reynolds, Louis Kirstein, and Louis Gumbiner, of this city, have been chosen to attend the twenty-second annual Zionist convention in Chicago, September 14, as delegates from the Los Angeles Zionist district. United States Supreme Court Justice Louis D. Brandeis and Prof. H. W. H. of Manchester, Eng., who have been touring Palestine, will report on conditions there, and it is expected that the Palestine mandatory will be announced, as well as the opening of Palestine for Jewish emigration, at the convention.
